

GRADUATE STUDENT CLASSIFICATION AND DEFINITION

Each student who registers for a course at Aurora University will be assigned a classification. Classification will be made at the time of entry to the university and reclassification will be made every semester, or if a student shifts from a non-degree classification to a degree or certificate classification.

Classification	Definition
G1	First-year graduate student (less than 18 semester hours)
G2	Second-year graduate student (18 or more semester hours)
G3	First-year doctoral student
G4	Second-year doctoral student
PG	Post Graduate (with master's or doctoral degree seeking second degree or certificate)
GA	Student-at-Large (not admitted and not seeking degree {may earn no more than six semester hours})
AU	Auditor (not admitted and taking courses without credit)
PR	Provisional (attending classes but admission procedures incomplete)
