

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY (TITLE IX)

Aurora University is committed to providing a learning, working, and living environment that promotes personal integrity, civility, and mutual respect. Aurora University does not discriminate, or tolerate discrimination, against any member of its community on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex/gender, gender identity, age, religion, disability, pregnancy, veteran status, marital status, sexual orientation, or any other status protected by applicable federal, state, or local law in matters of admissions, employment, or in any aspect of the educational programs or activities it offers.

Sex discrimination, sexual misconduct (including sexual harassment, sexual violence, and sexual exploitation), and interpersonal violence (including dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking) are serious offenses that have major consequences for the victim, the respondent, and campus community and are prohibited by Aurora University Policy Statements A-1 and A-2 in the A-Book (student handbook). Aurora University is committed to addressing sexual misconduct and will not tolerate any sexual misconduct in accordance with Title IX and other relevant federal legislation.
